

PMC

Title : The Role of Environmental Management and Project Management in Waste Reduction and Enforcement of Environmental Policies

Main Speaker: Shiraz . H.Basma,

Main Contributors: Khaleda Makhoulf, Mahmoud Dalloul, Adel Yassine, Ramzi Barghouti, Farah Hafez, Rania Dalloul

Ms. Shiraz Basma. Ms. Shiraz is an environmental management specialist with a Masters in Environmental Sciences, focus on Environmental Health and Management and a Bachelor of Science in Environmental Health from the American University of Beirut, Lebanon. She is a regional recognized environmental specialist and development consultant with number years of professional experience in a range of regional corporations to inner city businesses including governmental and community agencies. Currently she holds the position of a vice- president for environment sector, certification and program coordinator for establishment of economic zones project in Kuwait in one of the largest and most complex projects and programs in corporate history in the Gulf and Middle East Region, . In addition she has earned a teaching diploma in secondary education, with a focus on health education and attended a residency program at the University of California, Berkeley (Urban Planning Department), and worked as a research assistant at the United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Western Asia/ Energy and Natural Resource Division. She was one of the first female project managers to work in the Industrial Area in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, in Occupational Health and also establishment of the real estate firm. She is also a member of the Society of Value Engineering (SAVE) and a number of international organizations. Ms. Basma has co-authored a number of research papers in the fields of population, health, environment and development, housing, potable water quality control, and noise pollution, with a major emphasis on the emerging topic of complementary water systems in developing countries.